Choose meats that are both light and pure
 Now Physick take, health to procure
 Yet let the Skilfull thereof know,
 Least thou thy health do'st overthrow.

March 1692.

Cold blustering winds
 with storms
 of snow.

Some pinch-
 ing frosty
 mornings about this time
 may be expected.

Tempestuous
 and turbulent winds with driving storms.

You may as yet cut Quick-sets,
 and cover such Tree-roots as you laid bare in Autumn; sow Oats, Bar-ly, Parsnips, Onions, Carrots, Mel-lions, Cucumbers, &c. Graff all this month, beginning with Pears, and ending with Apples, unless the Spring prove extraordinary forwards. Prune last Years Grasses, and Cut off the heads of your budded Stocks. It were profitable now also to top your Rose-Trees a little with your knife near a leaf bud, and to Prune off the dead and withered branches, keeping them lower then the custome is, and to a single Stem.

Slip and Set Sage, Rosemary, Lavender Thyme, &c. Mid-March dress up and string your Straw-berry beds.
 It is now seasonable to purge and let bloud about the 20 of this month,
 there are such changes in the Air, yet
 it's generally very sickly; and therefore be specially carefull of your health at that time.

Hot spice is naught, strong wines inflame.

Sweet meats are worse, much sleep the same.

But sinfull not worst of all is deem'd,

Damn not thy Soul which Christ hath now redeem'd.

June 1692.

Sow Lettice, Chervile, Radish,
&c. to have young and tender salleting. Gather Herbs in the Full Moon to keep dry; they keep and retain their vertue and sweet smell better, if dried in the shade, than in the Sun, whatever some pretend.
Set Rosemary and Gilliflowers 3 or 4 days after the Full, and they will not run to seed. Look to your Bees for Swarms and Casts, and begin to destroy Insects in your Garden with Hoofs, Canes, and tempting Baits;
gather snails after Rain, &c.

Thin and light Diet, and chaste thoughts tend to health. Lie not un-advisedly on the ground, nor over hastily drink.

What pleaseth June, likes July best,
 Cold baths they love amongst the rest
 The grass that grows, to morrow's hay,
 And man that's now, alloon is clay.

July 1692.

In this month, fallow your Land
 for Wheat, pull up Hemp that is ripe, get Rue and Wormwood to drive away Fleas and Moths; dry Flowers in the shade and then Sun them a little for fear of corruption; perfume your house with sweet Savours, and defend your self from stinks in the street.

Forbear superfluous drinking, but eat heartily; use cold Herbs and Meats, abstain from Physick. Perfume your house every morning with Tar, use Carduus Benedictus boiled, and drink fasting.

Moist and hot
 with fine pleasant Gales of wind.

*The Explanation and use of the foregoing Table,
with some observations of England.*

THE Table consisting of several Columns, is plain and easie; in the first column towards the left hand, is a Catalogue of all the Shires in England and Wales, right against each of which, under their proper Titles, are the number of Parliament Men, Hundreds, Market-Towns, and Parishes contained in the same, as also the Length, Breadth, and Circumference of the Shire, with the Name of the Chief Town thereof, and its Distance and Situation from Cambridge.

As for Example,

I desire to know all the forementioned things, in or belonging to Norfolk, I look for Norfolk in the first column (the Shires being in an Alphabetical order) and right against the same I find, 12 Parliament Men, 31 Hundreds, 12 Market-Towns, 660 Parishes, its length 50 miles, breadth 40, circumference 240, the chief Town Norwich, its distance from Cambridge 49 miles, and its situation from thence North East, signified by N. E. thus in like manner is to be done for any other Place.

England, being the Chiefest and Pleasantest part of Great Britain is trebly divided, 1. into six Circuits destinated to the Itinerary Judges, 2. into 22 Episcopal Diocesses, 3. into 40 Shires; the Shires were first made by King Alfred, for the easier and speedy administration of Justice. This King also divided his Subjects into Tens, or Tythings, every of which severally, should give bond for the good behaviour of each other; ten of the mightiest Tythings made the Lesser division which we call Hundreds, which name cannot be derived from the number of Villages, none of our Hundreds being so large: these Hundreds are called Wards in Cumberland, Westmorland, Durham, Nor-

Northumberland: in every Hundred ther's a Constable called the Constable of the Hundred, who receives Warrants from the Sheriffs, or Justices, and dispatches them to the Constables of each Town and Village in his Hundred, for the effecting of publick busineses. To enumerate the plenty and ornaments of England, requires more room than here is allotted, therefore it may suffice to express some of her Excellencies in these verses, viz.

England is stor'd with Mountains, Bridges, Wooll, With Churthes, Rivers, Women beautiful.

Of the Eciipses this Year.

THere will happen 5 Eclipses; 3 of the Sun, and 2 of the Moon; but scarce any of them will appear much to us in England.

The first will be of the Moon, on January the 23 day, about 3 in the afternoon, and will be invisible to us.

The second Eclipse is of the Sun, on the 5 of February about five of the Clock in the afternoon, it will be in the latter part of Aquarius, but invisible in England.

The third will be of the Moon, on July the 18 about 4 in the morning, twill be a great Eclipse, 'tis Celebrated in the 6 degree of Aquarius, and if it be clear, will be visible in England most of it.

The fourth will be of the Sun, on August the 1, about 9 in the morning, it may be seen if (with good Glasses for that purpose) it be observed; 'Tis Eclipsed thus, in Leo his own Mansion house; I'll leave the Effects to them that will, to shew; and only tell this, that it will be a small one, for but one fourth of the sun's body loseth light.

The fifth is of the Sun also, on the 27 of December at 2 afternoon, and but one twelfth of the sun's body loseth light, twill scarce be visible with us.

Seuerall good Receipts shewing how to cure many of the principal diseases, incident to Horses, Cows and Sheep.

A Medicine for the Yellows.

LET the Horse bleed in the neck, in the mouth and under the Eye, then take two penny-worth of Saffron, which being dried and made into fine powder, mix it with Sweet Butter, and make it in the manner of a Pill give it in balls to the Horse three mornings together, let his drink be warm, and his hay be sprinkled with water.

To cure the hungry evil.

Give the Horse to drink Milk, and wheat-meal mixed together, a quart at a time, and so feed him with pro-vender, by little and little, till he forsake it.

A remedy for the Frenzy, Head-ach, and Staggers in Horses.

The sign to know this disease by, is usually the hanging down of his head, watry eyes, and reeling of his body; and the cure is to let the horse bleed in the neck three mornings together, and every morning take a quantity of this drink following. Take a quart of Ale, and boil in it a big white-bread loafe crust, then take it from the fire, and dissolve three or four spoon-fulls of honey into it, then lukewarm give it to the horse to drink, and cover over his temples with a plaister of Pitch, keep his head exceeding warm, let his meat be little, and his stable dark; give him two ounces of Diapente, in Muscadine or honey, after the same manner,
it is a good cure.

To cure Bots and Worms of all sorts.

Get the leaves chopped of the herb Savine, and mix it with honey and butter, and make two or three balls thereof, and make the horse swallow them down, and it will help him. probatum est.

A cure for the Cramp, or the Convulsion of the Sinews.

The Cramp is the drawing the Sinews together, or any of ones members; but the Convulsion, is when the whole body is generally contracted and stiffed. The way to cure it, is first to chafe and rub the members contracted with Vinegar and common oyl, and then to bind it all over with wet hay, or else with woollen or linnen cloaths wet, either of which is not amiss.

To cure the Glaunders.

Take Auripigmentum two Drams, of Tussilaginis made into powder, as much; mix them together with Turpentine, till they be like paste, make thereof little cakes, dry them before the fire, then take a Chafingdish of Coals and lay two of the Cakes thereon, cover them with a tunnel, and when the smoak riseth hold the Chafingdish, guiding the tunnel into the horse's nostrills, and let the smoak go up into his head, which done, ride the horse till he sweat, do thus every morning before he be watered till the running of his nostrills cease, and the kernels under his chaps be gone.

A cure for the Scab or Mange in Horses.

Take fresh grease or yellow Arsnick, and mix them together, and where the Manginess or Itch is, there rub it hard, the sore being made to run.

For the Plague in the Guts, and such like infections.

Take of Selander roots, leaves and all, one handfull, as much Wormwood, and the like quantity of Rue, wash them well, and then bruise them in a mortar, which being done, boyl them well in a quart of Ale, then strain them, and add to the liquor a quarter of a pound of sweet Butter, and being lukewarm, give it to the Horse.

To cure the Pain in the Kidnies, or Stone in a Horse,

Take a handfull of Maiden hair, and steep it all night in a quart of strong Ale, give it the horse to drink every morning till he be well; this will break any stone in a horse.

To defend a horse from the Flies.

Take the juice of Bellitory of Spain, mix it with Milk and anoint the horse's belly with it, and no Flies will trouble him.

For broken bones, or bones out of joynt in Horses,

First place the bones in the right places, then take Perismand and beat it in a Mortar, with the Oyler swallows, anoint the members broken, then splinter it up, and rowl it up, and in fifteen days time the bones will be strong.

Remedies for several diseases incident to Cows and Oxen.

For the diseases in the Guts, Fliz or Collick,

Take a handfull of the seed of wood-roses, dry it and beat it to powder, brew it with a quart of strong Ale, and give it the beast to drink.

For the Pestilence or Murrain.

Take of old Urine a quart, and mix it with a quantity of Hens Dung, dissolve it in it, and let the beast drink it.

For the general Scab or Scurf in Cattle.

If it be only in one place, anoint that place with black Soape and Tarr mixed together, but if it be over the whole body, then first let the beast bleed, and then wash the scabs with old Urine and green Copperas together, and after that anoint the body with boars grease and brimstone mixed together.

For eating any Poisonous thing.

Take a pint of strong Vinegar, and half so much oyl, and two spoonfulls of London Treacle, and mix it together on the fire, and give it the beast warm to drink, and it certainly cures him.

For killing of worms in Oxen and Cows.

Take Sayin chopped small, and beaten with sweet butter, and so give it in round balls to the beast, or else use sweet wort and black soape mixed.

For preserving Sheep from the Rot.

Take Adrates, which is a certain salt gathered from the Marshes in the heat of summer, with this rub the mouth of the sheep once a week, and you never need fear rotting of your sheep.

For the staggers in Sheep or Lambs.

Take Asafetida and dissolve it in warm water, and put the quantity of half a spoonfull into each ear of the sheep or Lamb and it will be a speedy remedy.
